Control Rules and Regulations.

"A third amendment to the act should provide that the commission may by order suspend, modify or anrul any changes in the rules or regulations which impose undue burdens on shippers. No doubt it ought to be left with respect to the power of the left with respect to the power of the commission on such a subject, because the rules and regulations of a railway are the means by which injustice may be done to the shipper. It would seem well to empower the commission to compel connecting carriers to unite in forming a through route and to fix the rate and the apportionment thereof among the carriers. The commission should also be empowered to prescribe the purpose of suppressing evils growing out of the labor organizations, is to take advantage against such unlaw-terms of a statute which probably was the rules and regulations under which the shippers shall have the privilege to designate the route over which their shipments shall be carried to the destination beyond that of the first carrier.

hardly notceable and the distribution of large buying orders soon sent prices quickly up again. Southern Pacific and the Hill stocks were the principal features but there were important movements also in many other stocks. A large number of industrials and specialties were bought, and United States Steel distinguished itself by making another new high records level at 84%. The preferred also rose %. Constant selling of St. Paul, which ultimately forced it over a point below last week's closing, checked the advance before 11 o'clock. Southern Pacific moved up 2%. Mackay companies and Vulcan and Detinning 2%. the preferred. Chesapeake and Ohio and Grand Mining 2. Northern Pacific and Bethlehem Steel 1½. Republic Steel 1% and numerous others I.
